If the birth registration took place in a country other than Armenia or US, an English notarized translation of the foreign document is also required.
6. Evidence of termination of prior marriage(s) of Petitioner (as appropriate, such as Divorce Certificate or Death Certificate of spouse (if applicable)): Original and photocopy must be provided. For U.S. documents, a certified copy is sufficient rather than an original. If the divorce took place in a country other than Armenia or US, an English notarized translation of the foreign document is also required.
7. Police Certificates: Applicants are required to submit a police certificate from the country of the applicant's nationality and current residence, if residence in such country exceeds six months. Police certificates are also required from all other countries where the applicant has resided for at least one year. Regardless of the length of residence, a police certificate must also be obtained from the police authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason (except for the US).  - o Joint Sponsor's US ID: A copy of the joint sponsor and/or his or her household member's US passport picture page or green card is required.
15. Domicile of Petitioner: The law requires that sponsors be domiciled (live) in any of the States of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any territory or possession of the United States. Please note that Federal law prohibits a joint sponsor from sponsoring an immigrant when the petitioner does not have a domicile in the United States. The petitioner must first meet all the requirements for being a sponsor (age, domicile and citizenship) before a joint sponsor will be considered. Domicile is a complex issue and must be determined on a case by case basis. To qualify as a sponsor, a petitioner who is residing abroad must have a principal residence in the U.S. and intend to maintain that residence for the foreseeable future. Lawful permanent resident (LPR) sponsors must show they are maintaining their LPR status.
 - If you are concerned that domicile might be an issue for your application, please provide sufficient proof of any documents to show that the petitioner's domicile is in fact the United States, the District of Columbia, or any territory or possession of the United States.

*NOTE: Presentation of the above documents does not guarantee visa issuance. Additional documents may be required on a case-by-case basis.
